Christ church Spitalfields was built by Sir Nicholas Hawksmoor and opened in 1729.

By the middle of the 20th century the building was unkempt and at risk of demolition when the congregation and local community groups came together to fundraise for its renovation.

Now beautifully restored as a landmark of East London, thanks to donations from a number of generous benefactors and trusts it continues to be home to an active church congregation and has opened its doors as a public building to the thousands who visit it each year.

The Crypt Hall’s unique uses over the years:
- A bomb shelter to the local residents during Second World War.
- Homeless shelter in the 80-90s; founding the ‘Spitalfields Crypt Trust’ charity which is still running in a purpose built building in Shoreditch.
- Excavated in 1984, nearly 1,000 human remains were discovered, which were taken to the Natural History Museum.

Dates can be held for up to 14 days. Once a booking is confirmed; we require 50% of the total booking cost as a deposit alongside the signed booking forms and the full invoice at least one month prior to the event.
